Overview:

Join the Global Conference on Addiction and Psychiatry (GAP 2026) in London, UK, August 24–26, 2026. This premier event unites psychiatrists, psychologists, addiction specialists, neuroscientists, and mental health professionals to share research, explore innovations, and advance prevention, treatment, and recovery in psychiatry and addiction care. Participate in person or virtually and connect with global experts shaping the future of mental health.

Call for Papers

We invite all participants to enrich the scientific program by submitting their research abstracts for review. A standardized template is provided on the "Abstract Submission" page of the conference website. Accepted abstracts will be published in the extended abstract book, which will be made available online and shared with all attendees during the conference.
